Please email your completed application form as an attachment in an email to contact@mydancealliance.org, with the subject line "SEA Choreolab Application: [Your Name]" by the end of Sunday 7 April 2024.

Important Notes:

1. Any other documents submitted which are not requested by the application (such as CVs), will not be considered.
2. Please observe the word limits for each section. Applications which exceed the word limit will be returned.
3. By submitting your application, you agree to the following conditions, if you are selected for the Southeast Asian Choreolab:
  - You can finance your own airfare to Kuala Lumpur, visa and insurance requirements.
  - You will be able to lead one group session during the choreolab, not longer than 90 minutes. This session can be a sharing a choreographic method, thematic exploration, dance technique or artistic question. You can get help to discuss and develop your session from the choreolab organisers.
  - You are currently able to commit to participate in the entirety of the SEA Choreolab 2024 project (arrival on 15 July, departure on 28 July 2024). If you are selected by the panel, you will be notified, and given two weeks to confirm your participation.

The organizers reserve the right to request additional information about the applicant during the deliberation process. Applicants will be informed of decisions by the end of April 2024.

If you have any other questions about the application process, please contact Bilqis Hijjas, +6017 310 3769, contact@mydancealliance.org.
